The Free Coinage of Silver Says a Washington Dispatch.

THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE.

What Governor Taylor, of Tennessee, Says Dover, N. H., Elects a Democratic Mayor -The Indians are Quiet-

[Special to THE HERALD-Examiner Dispatch.] New York, Nov. 25.—A special to the Press, from Washington says: Grover Cleveland intends very soon to openly declare for free coinage. Senator Vest, who so bitterly assailed the ex-President in the silver debate a few months ago, has received a letter from Mr. Cleveland, in which, it is claimed, the ex-President acknowledges that he has been wrong in his attitude upon the question beretofore, and proposes at an opportune time to announce his change of base.

The Democrats Want Gleveland.

[Special to THE HERALD - Examiner Dispatch.] NEW YORK, Nov. 25 .- Governor Robert L. Taylor of Tennessee, came to New York Sunday and departed for home last evening, Governor Taylor voiced the sentiment of other prominent southerners who have been recently interviewed, that Grover Cleveland is the logical candidate of the aemocracy for President in 1892. "No other mm," he said, "is thought of in the south in connection with the nomination. Mr. Cleveland is so popular with our people that mere mention of his name in an assemblage is sufficient to provoke en-thusiam. He made the issue on which the Democrats won in the late election and the people naturally want him to be the stand-ard tearer in the greater figut that is WINNIPES, Nov. 25 .- Private information is received from the Dominion capital that the military forces here have been rdered to be in readiness to proceed to the international boundary to prevent any American Indians, who are thought about to go on the warpath, from crossing into British territory or inciting British Indians to Join an uprising.

The Messiah Craze in Indian Territory. LAWRENCE, Kans., Nov. 25,-Joe Abner. a Cheyenne Indian, from the Cheyenne and Arapaboe reservations, Indian territory, says the Messiah craze has taken hold of the Indians there. They are becoming very restless. A Sieux, acting as a missionary, came from the north to teach the new religion to the southern tribes. He preaches them that any one who does not believe in the new religion will be destroyed, and so works upon the imaginations of these people that they fall prostrate to the ground, and while lying there the missionary pretends to cast some spell on them. When they arise they declare they have seen the new Christ and at once join in the glost dance. The new religion has spread to the Klowas, Comanches and Apaches.

OMAHA, Nav. 25 .- A special from Pine Ridge says: It is learned to night that Indians en route from Rosebud, 600 strong, are plundering descrited settlers' houses the route, and are also killcattle and feasting on fresh Seventy-five Cheyennes were as scouts by General Brooke chinsted as scouts by General Brooke to night. Many of the dancers are coming in for them and are treated the same as the others.

The Messiah Craze Among the Poncas

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 25 .- A special from Arkansas City tells of the excitement among the Indians in the territory over the Messiah craze. A delegation of Poncas. Otoes, Missouris and lowas returned to the reservations to day from a pilgrimage to the Cheyennes, where they learned all the latest news of the Messiah. These indians dwell on adjoining reservations and will inaugurete a ghost dance Friday.

George Godfrey Whips Ed Smith. New York, Nov. 25 .- The long expected glove fight between George Godfrey (colored), of Providence, and Ed Smith, of Denver, took place to night in Hoboken, under the auspices of the Puritan Athletic club, Long Island city, and resulted in a victory for Godfrey. Jerre Dunn was beers, ales referee, and held the $2,000 purse. From the start it was plain Smith was over matched. He made a very game fight, however, and several times resumed work although apparently done for. Godfrey gained the advantage nearly every round and in the twenty-third landed a heavy right-hander on Smith's car. Smith staggered and nearly fell, and as he was making an effort to again put up his hands Referee Dunn stopped the fight, giving it to Godfrey. giving it to Godfrey.

On the Theory that Prisoners Should Not be Condemned on Circumstantial Evidence.

Special to THE HERALD-Examiner Disputch. Tonoxro, Nov. 25 .- Prof. Goldwin Smith has given to the press his views on cusea persons should not be condemned on circumstantial evidence he sets forth to be untenable. He says Borchail had contessed to conspiracy against Benwell, thereby clearly disclosing a motive for his crime. He virtually confessed the crime itself in two ways, first, by betraying in his letter to Colonel Benwell us knowledge of Benwell's death before the body had been found; and secondly, by failing to account for himself during the day of the market. Doven, N. H., Nov. 25.—The Democrats elected their candidate for mayor to day for the first time in the history of the city.

Happily, the people here were really aroused and desperately in earnest and inspired by intelligent and fervent patriotism. The Democracy rested their cause solely on this popular uprising, and their reliance proved not in vain. The news throughout the country demonstrates that our party generally is in touch with the people—with their intelligence and moral sentiment—and I pray that no unwise counsels may divorce this irresistible union. Please believe me, with renewed thanks and with the assurance of profund respect, most sinthe assurance of profun1 respect, most sincerely yours, Robert E. Pattisox. To Grover Cleveland.

POETLAND, Ogn., Nov. 25.—In the United States district court to-day a decree was I granted appointing Joseph Simon receiver of the Oregon Improvement company. His bonds are $100,000.

J. C. Haines, general attorney for the company, says the company is solvent and its property in Oregon, California, Wash-ington and Montana is worth $10,000,000.

The application for a receiver was made by President Smith through his attorney. It stated that in order to secure the credit of the company under the present fuencial situation it was necessary a receiver be appointed. The application shows all the properties of the company are subject to a lice. The interest on the outstanding first mortgage bonds—J per cent. on $4,500,000—is due in December and the company was unable to meet the payment unless the court takes possession. The Farmers' Loan and Trust company is the principal creditor.

General Attorney Haines said the management wanted to preserve the company from being broken into fragments and sold under attachments. If it can keep business going until the financial stringency is over there will be no trouble in meeting all its obligations. The company's property is worth fully ten millions, while the total obligations will not exceed seven millions. If the company is not disintegrated every dollar will be paid off.

It Promises Many Reforms-A Criticism It by the Great Liberal Leader-

LONDON, Nov. 25 .- At the request of Gladstone, Morley has communicated to Parnell a letter written Monday to Moriey by Gladstone. In it Mr. Gladstone says: "After using all the means of observation and reflection in my power, I arrived at the conclusion that notwithstanding the splendid services rendered by Paraell to his country, his continuance at the present moment in the leadership would be productive of consequences disastrous in the highest degree to the cause of Ireland." Gladstone adds further, as an expansion of his onclusions, that Parnell's continuance as leader would not only place many friends of the Irish cause in a position of great embarrassment, but would render his (Gladstone's) retention of the leadership of the Liberal party, based as it has been mainly upon prosecution of the Irish cause, almost a nullity. These views, he says, he had ex-pressed personally to McCarthy. The ex-pansion of his views he begged McCarthy to regard as confidential if he found Parnell contemplated spontaneous action; but be also begged McCarthy would make he also begged McCarthy would make known to the Irish party at to-day's meeting that such was his conclusion if he should find Parnell had not in contemplation any step of the nature indicated. He wrote to Moriey in case McCarthy should be unable to communicate with Parnell. In conclusion, Gladstone says: "I have thought it best to put this in terms simple and direct much as I should have liked to alleviate the personal nature of the situation as respects the manner of con-

London, Nov. 25 .- A meeting of the rish Home Rule members of parliament was held to-day before the opening of the session of the commons. Parnell was present. He was loudly cheered as he entered the room. A motion was made that Paraell be elected chairman of the; Irish parliamentary party and was carried unanimously. It is announced that Parnell will retain the leadership at the express desire of his followers. Parnell made an address to the meeting in which be thanked his followers for his re-election. He said it was for the Irish members to decide whether he should lead. If their decision had been negative, or there been any di-versity of opinion, he would cheerfully withdraw from public life. Nothing but the conviction that his colleagues desired still to utilize his services in their common cause induced him to resume a position in which his altered discusses.

The most important change in the new constitution of Mississippi is the one whereby, after the first of next January, every voter must be able to read any section in the constitution or to understand the same when read to him or give a reasonable interpretation thereof.

The vintage in Italy this year has varied considerably in the several districts. In Piedmont it has been satisfactory, in Lombardy less so, and not generally good in Liguria, the Marches and Emilia. In the Veneto the yield was scarce, but of good quality; in Tuscany and Lazio satisfactory while in the south it has been extremely abundant. It is certain that the product of this year will be greatly superior to the last, and it is calculated that not less than fortunate the government was not content with stating the improved condition of the country, but thought it necessary to compliment themselves about the improvement. Members of the opposition were bound to express dissent. The list of measures in the speech places the government in no responsible position. Was the house to wait indefinitely to learn how they intend to deal with the greatest question?

Smith, replying, declared the government had nor white took what measures were practicable to abate the sufferings of the persecuted people of Turkey. The government had no right to institute an inquiry into the African matter, as the expedition was purely voluntary. Ample measures would be taken to meet the distress in Ireland. After a few minor members had spoken, the address was agreed to. This is the first time in fifteen years the address has been agreed to on the day opening of parliament. This sudden ending is explained by the fact that Gladstone inti-
